- (1) Wherein any proceedings, any of the parties to the proceedings dies or is adjudicated as an insolvent or in the case of a Company if it is wound up, the proceedings shall continue with the successors-in-interest, the executor, administrator, receiver, liquidator, or other legal representative of the party concerned, as the case may be.
- (2) The adjudicating officer may, for reasons to be recorded, treat the proceedings as abated in case the adjudicating officer so directs and dispenses with the need to bring the successors-in-interest to come on record.
- (3) In case any person wishes to make a successor-in-interest of a party to the proceedings, he shall file an application for the purpose within 90 days from the date of knowledge of its predecessor's death, insolvency, liquidation or winding up, and such application shall be decided by the adjudicating officer after hearing the parties.

31. Proceedings to be open to public: -

- (1) The proceedings before the adjudicating officer shall be open to the public.
- (2) The adjudicating officer may, if he thinks fit, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, order at any stage of the proceedings of any particular case that the public generally or any particular person or group of persons shall not have access to or be or remain in the room or building used by the adjudicating officer.

32. Publication of petition: -

- (1) Where any application, petition, or other matter is required to be published under the Act or the regulations or as per the directions of the adjudicating officer, it shall, unless the adjudicating officer otherwise orders or the Act or the regulations otherwise provide, be advertised not less than 7 clear days before the date fixed for hearing. Except as otherwise provided, such publication shall give a heading describing the subject matter in brief.
- (2) The contents to be published shall be approved by the adjudicating officer.

33. Issue of orders and practice directions: -

Subject to the provisions of the Act and the regulations, the adjudicating officer with approval of Commission may, from time to time, issue orders, guidelines and practice directions which shall have the same effect as regulations in regard to the implementation of the regulations and procedure to be followed in dealing with concerned matters.

34. Saving of inherent power of the adjudicating officer:-

- (1) Nothing in these regulations shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the adjudicating officer to make such orders as may be necessary for meeting the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the adjudicating officer.
- (2) Nothing in these regulations shall bar the adjudicating officer from adopting a procedure for dealing with the matters in conformity with the provisions of the Act, which is at variance with any of the provisions of these regulations, if the adjudicating officer, for reasons to be recorded in writing, deems it necessary or expedient.
- (3) Nothing in these regulations shall, expressly or impliedly, bar the adjudicating officer to deal with any matter or exercise any power under the Act for which no regulations have been framed, and the adjudicating officer may deal with such matters, powers and functions in a manner he thinks fit.

35. General power to amend:-

The adjudicating officer may, at any time and on such terms as to costs or otherwise, as he may think fit, amend any defect or error in any proceeding before him, and all necessary amendments shall be made for the purpose of determining the real question or issue arising in the proceedings.

36. Power to remove difficulties: -

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of these regulations, the adjudicating officer with the approval of the Commission may, by general or special order, do anything not being inconsistent with the provisions of the Act which appears to him to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulties.

37. Power to dispense with the requirement of the regulations: -

The adjudicating officer with the approval of the Commission shall have the power, for reasons to be recorded in writing and with notice to the affected parties, dispense with the requirements of any of the regulations in a specific case or cases subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified.

38. Extension or abridgment of time prescribed: -

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the time specified by these regulations or by order of the adjudicating officer for doing any act may be extended or abridged for sufficient reason by order of the adjudicating officer.

39. Effect of non-compliance: -

The failure to comply with any requirement of these regulations shall not invalidate any proceeding merely by reason of such failure unless the adjudicating officer is of the view that such failure has resulted in miscarriage of justice.

40. Costs: -

- (1) Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be directed by the adjudicating officer, the cost of all proceedings shall be awarded at the discretion of the adjudicating officer and the adjudicating officer shall have full power to determine by whom or out of what funds and to what extent such costs are to be paid and give all necessary directions for the aforesaid purposes.
- (2) The costs shall be paid within 30days of the date of the order or within such time as the adjudicating officer may, by order, direct.

41. Enforcement of orders passed by the adjudicating officer:-

The Commission Secretary shall ensure enforcement and compliance of the orders passed by the adjudicating officer, by the persons concerned in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the regulations and if necessary, may seek the orders of the adjudicating officer for directions.
