- (2) The Commission shall not nominate a person as arbitrator to whom any of the parties to the arbitration has a reasonable objection on grounds of possible bias or similar such reasons and the Commission considers the apprehension to be justified.

29. Procedure for adjudication, settlement and passing of award:-

- (1) In case the Commission decides to adjudicate the matter raised by the parties, the procedure to be followed shall be as far as possible the same as in the case of hearing before the Commission provided in Chapter II above and the order of the Commission shall be an adjudication by the Commission and not an award in arbitration.
- (2) In case the Commission nominates an arbitrator or arbitrators to settle the disputes, the arbitrator or arbitrators may follow specific directions issued by the Commission and also such procedure as they may consider appropriate, consistent with the principles of natural justice and fair opportunity to be given to the parties to arbitration.
- (3) The arbitrator or arbitrators, as the case may be shall, after hearing the parties pass an award giving reasons for the decision on all issues arising for decision and forward the award with relevant documents to the Commission within such time as the Commission may direct.

- (4) The award made by the arbitrators shall be an award under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

30. Cost of arbitration and proceedings:-

- (1) The cost of the arbitration including the preliminary and adjudicatory proceedings before the Commission shall be borne by such parties and in such sums as the Commission may direct.

CHAPTER IV - INVESTIGATION, INQUIRY, COLLECTION OF INFORMATION, ETC

31. Collection of information:-

- (1) The Commission may make such order or orders as it thinks fit in terms of the provisions of the Act for collection of information, inquiry, investigation, entry, search, seizure and without prejudice to the generality of its powers undertake the following:
- a) The Commission may specially authorize any Officer, to enter any building or place where the Commission has reason to believe that any document relating to the subject matter of the inquiry or adjudication under the Act, may be found and may seize any such document or take extracts or copies there from subject to the provisions of section 100 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), in so far it may be applicable .
  - b) In the exercise of powers conferred on it by section 128 of the Act, the Commission may, on being satisfied that a licensee or a generating company has failed to comply with any of the conditions of the licence or the provisions of the Act or the rules or any of the regulations made there under, at any time, by order in writing, direct an Investigating Authority specified in the order to investigate the affairs of the licensee or generating company and report to the Commission. For this the Commission may direct the minimum information to be maintained by the licensees and generating companies in their books and also direct the manner in which such information shall be maintained and the checks and verifications to be adopted;
  - c) The Commission may, at any time, direct the Secretary or any one or more Officers or consultants or any other person as the Commission considers appropriate to study, investigate or furnish information with respect to any matter within the purview of the Commission;
  - d) The Commission may for the above purpose give such other directions as it may deem fit and direct the time within which the report is to be submitted or information furnished.
  - e) The Commission may issue or authorize the Secretary or an Officer on its behalf to issue directions to any person to produce before it and allow to be examined and kept by an Officer of the Commission specified in this behalf the books of accounts as provided in the Act;
  - f) The Commission may, for the purpose of collecting any information particulars or documents which the Commission consider necessary in connection with the discharge of its functions, issue such directions and follow any one or more of the methods provided for in the Act as the Commission consider it to be appropriate;
  - g) If any such report or information obtained as specified in the Act or in these regulations appears to the Commission to be insufficient or inadequate, the Commission or the Secretary or an Officer authorised for the purpose may give directions for further inquiry, report and furnishing of information; and the Commission may direct that such incidental, consequential and supplemental matters which may be considered relevant in connection with the above, be attended to.

- (2) In the discharge of the functions and powers under the Act and these Regulations, the Commission may, if it thinks fit, direct a notice of inquiry to be issued and proceed with the matter in a manner provided under Chapter II of these Regulations.
- (3) On receipt of the report from the appointed Investigating Authority, and after giving an opportunity to the licensee or generating company, as the case may be, to make a representation in connection with the report, the Commission may make an order to require the licensee or the generating company to take such action in respect of any matter arising out of the report as the Commission may think fit;
- (4) The Commission may, after giving reasonable notice to the licensee or the generating company, as the case may be, publish the report submitted by the Investigating Authority or such portion(s) thereof as may appear to the Commission to be necessary.

32. Assistance of Experts

- (1) The Commission may, at any time, take the assistance of any institution, consultants, experts, engineers, chartered accountants, advocates, surveyors and such other technical and professional persons, as it may consider necessary, and authorise them to study, investigate, inquire into any matter or issue and submit report or reports or furnish any information. The Commission may determine the terms and conditions for engagement of such professionals.
- (2) If the report or information obtained in terms of the above Regulations or any part thereof is proposed to be relied upon by the Commission in forming its opinion or view in any proceedings, the parties in the proceedings shall be given a reasonable opportunity for filing objections and making submissions on the report or information.

CHAPTER V – FINES AND CHARGES

33. Imposition of Fines and Charges:-

- (1) The Commission may initiate a proceeding for imposition of fines and charges and award of compensation upon receiving a complaint or on its own if the Commission is of the view that the facts made known prima-facie constitute non-compliance or violation by a generating company, a licensee or other person of any provision or requirement of the Act or of any of the rules or regulations framed there under or of directions or orders of the Commission.
- (2) If the Commission decides on the basis of the information received that there is a prima-facie cause to proceed in the matter, a case shall be registered and notice shall be issued to the person responsible for non compliance or violation under sub-clause (1) above to show cause within a reasonable time as to why the Commission should not impose the fines or charges on him. The notice shall state the substance of the allegation against such person with specific reference to the alleged non-compliance or violation.
- (3) On the date fixed in the notice for appearance, the Commission shall explain to the person responsible for non compliance or violation or his authorized representative, the nature of non-compliance or violation committed by such person.

- (4) Where the person responsible for non compliance or violation appears in response to the notice and admits the truth of the allegation by a memorandum in writing, the Commission shall record the response and may impose such fines or charges as the Commission may consider appropriate in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the Regulations framed by the Commission for the purpose and may also award compensation to the affected person.
- (5) Where the person responsible for non compliance or violation on appearance does not admit the alleged violation or non-compliance and demands a hearing, the Commission shall proceed to hear the case in accordance with the provisions of the Act and these regulations.
- (6) If any person to whom a notice has been issued fails without reasonable cause to appear before the Commission on the date fixed for hearing or any subsequent date to which the proceeding may have been adjourned, the Commission may at its discretion proceed with the case ex parte in the absence of such person.
- (7) The Commission shall proceed to hear the complainant and take such evidence, oral or documentary, or by way of affidavit, as may be produced in support of the case and take all such evidence as may be produced by the complainant or the person responsible for non compliance or violation in his defense. Where the proceeding has been initiated upon information received by the Commission, it may direct any of its officers to act as complainant in the matter and present the evidence in the case.
- (8) The Commission, at any stage of the proceeding, shall have the power to summon and enforce the attendance of any person who appears to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case to give evidence or to produce any document which in the opinion of the Commission appears to be material or relevant to the subject matter of the proceeding.

34. Process for levy and recovery of Fines and Charges:-

- (1) If on the conclusion of any proceeding under Regulation 33, the Commission is satisfied that a person is liable to fines or charges, it may by order in writing impose such fines or charges in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the Regulations specified for the purpose and may also award compensation.
- (2) While determining the quantum of fines or charges, the Commission shall, amongst other, consider the following factors:
  - a) The nature and extent of non-compliance or violation,
  - b) Wrongful gain or unfair advantage derived as a result of the non-compliance or violation,
  - c) Loss or degree of harassment caused to any person(s) as a result of the non-compliance or violation, and
  - d) The repetitive nature of the non-compliance or violation.
- (3) While passing an order under these regulations, the Commission may award compensation to the complainant or affected party to be paid by the person found to be guilty of non-compliance or violation.
- (4) The Commission may direct the time within which the fines, charges or compensation should be paid by the concerned person.
- (5) Unless otherwise varied by special order, the fines, charges or compensation ordered by the Commission under Regulation 33 shall be paid within 30 days of the order of the Commission imposing the fine, charge, or compensation or within such extended date as allowed by the Commission.

CHAPTER – VI

APPLICATION OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF INDIAN PENAL CODE AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE CODE

35. Applicability of provisions of Indian Penal Code and Criminal Procedure Code:-

- (1) In terms of section 95 of the Electricity Act, the proceedings before the Commission shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings and Commission shall be deemed to be a Civil Court as specified in the said Section read with applicable provisions of the Indian Penal Code and the code of Criminal Procedure 1973.
- (2) The extracts of the relevant provisions of the Indian Penal Code and Criminal Procedure Code are contained in Appendix V to these regulations.

CHAPTER VII – MISCELLANEOUS

- (1) The Records of the Commission, except those parts which for reasons directed by the Commission are confidential or privileged, shall be open to inspection by all, subject to the payment of fees and compliance with such other terms as the Commission may direct.
- (2) The Commission may, on such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate, provide for the supply of the certified copies of the documents and papers available with the Commission to any person.
- (3) The Commission may, by order, direct that any information, documents and other papers and materials produced before it or any of its Officers, consultants, representatives or otherwise which may otherwise come into their possession or custody, shall be confidential or privileged and shall not be available for inspection or supply of copies, and the Commission may also direct that such document, papers or materials shall not be used in any manner except as specifically authorized by the Commission.

37. Review of the decisions, directions and orders:-

- (1) Any person aggrieved by a decision or order of the Commission, from which no appeal is preferred or allowed, and who, from the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him at the time when the decision/ order was passed by the Commission or on account of some mistake or error apparent from the face of record, or for any other sufficient reason, may apply for review of such order within 60 days of the date of decision/ order of the Commission.
- (2) An application for review shall be filed in the same manner as a petition under Chapter II of these regulations.
- (3) When it appears to the Commission that there is no sufficient ground for review, the Commission shall reject such review application.

- (4) The application for review shall be accompanied by such fee as may be specified by Commission.

38. Continuance of proceedings after death, etc.:-

- (1) Where in any proceeding any of the parties to the proceeding dies or is adjudicated as an insolvent and in the case of a Company it being under liquidation or winding up or subject to amalgamation, merger etc, and the proceedings shall continue with the successors-in-interest of the party concerned. The Commission may, for reasons to be recorded, treat the proceeding as abated in case the Commission so directs and dispense with the need to bring the successors-in-interest to come on record.
- (2) In case any person wish to bring on record the successors-in-interest, the application for the purpose shall be filed within 90 days from the event requiring the successors-in-interest to come on record. Provided that the Commission may, if it is satisfied that there is sufficient cause for not filing the application within the time allowed, condone the delay subject to such terms and conditions, as the Commission may consider appropriate.
- (3) If the person fails to bring on record the successor-in-interest within the time allowed under clause (3) and in the event the application for condoning the delay in bringing on record the successor-in-interest is filed but not condoned under the provision to clause (3) the proceedings against the deceased person shall abate,

39. Proceedings to be open to public:-

The proceedings before the Commission shall be open to the public subject to availability of sitting accommodation. Provided that the Commission may, if it thinks fit, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, order at any stage of the proceedings of a case that the public generally or any particular person or group of persons shall not have access to or be or remain in, the room or building used by the Commission for the purpose of conduct of the proceeding.

40. Publication of petition:-

- (1) Where any application, petition, or other matter is required to be published under the Act or these Regulations or as per the directions of the Commission, it shall, unless the Act or these Regulations otherwise provide, be advertised within such time as the Commission may direct and in the absence of any specific direction to the contrary not less than 5 days before the date fixed or hearing and further unless otherwise directed by the Commission such publication shall be done in atleast two newspapers having circulation in the area concerned.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided, such advertisements shall give a heading describing the subject matter in brief. Such advertisement to be published shall be approved by the Officer of the Commission designated for the purpose.

41. Issue of orders and practice directions:-

Subject to the provisions of the Act and these regulations, the Commission may, from time to time, issue orders and practice directions in regard to the implementation of the Regulations and procedure to be followed on various matters which the Commission has been empowered by these regulations to lay down.

42. Fees on Petition, Application etc:-

Every petition/application etc. filed before the Commission shall be accompanied by the fee as specified in the APSERC Fees Regulations .

43. Saving of inherent power of the Commission:-

- (1) Nothing in these regulations shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the Commission to make such orders as may be necessary for meeting the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the Commission.
- (2) Nothing in these regulations shall bar the Commission from adopting a procedure, which is at variance with any of the provisions of these regulations, if the Commission, in view of the special circumstances of a matter or class of matters and for reasons to be recorded in writing deems it necessary or expedient.
- (3) Nothing in these regulations shall, expressly or impliedly, bar the Commission to deal with any matter or exercise any power under the Act for which no Regulations have been framed and the Commission may deal with such matters and exercise powers and functions in a manner it thinks fit.

44. General power to review and rectify:-

- (1) The Commission may on its own motion review any decision, direction or orders and pass such appropriate orders as the Commission thinks fit.
- (2) The Commission may, at any time rectify any defect or error in any proceeding before it.

45. Power to remove difficulties:-

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of these regulations, the Commission may, by general or special order, do anything not being inconsistent with the provisions of the Act which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulties.

46. Power to dispense with the requirement of the Regulations:-

The Commission shall have the power, for reasons to be recorded in writing and with notice to the affected parties to dispense with the requirements of any of the Regulations in a specific case or cases subject to such terms and conditions as may be directed by the Commission.

47. Extension or abridgment of time allowed:-

Subject to the provisions of the Act, the time allowed by these regulations or by order of the Commission for doing any act may be extended by order of the Commission.

48. Effect of non-compliance:-

The failure to comply with any requirement of these regulations shall not invalidate any proceeding merely by reason of such failure unless the Commission is of the view that such failure has resulted in miscarriage of justice.

49. Costs:-

- (1) Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be directed by the Commission, the cost of all proceedings shall be awarded at the discretion of the Commission and the Commission shall have powers to determine by whom or out of what funds and to what extent such costs are to be paid and give all necessary directions for the aforesaid purposes.
- (2) The costs shall be paid within 30 days from the date of the order or within such time as the Commission may, by order, direct. The order of the Commission awarding costs shall be executed in the same manner as the decree or order of a Civil Court.

50. Enforcement of orders passed by the Commission:-

The Secretary shall have the powers to enforce the compliance of the orders passed by the Commission, by the persons concerned in accordance with the provisions of the Act and these regulations.

APPENDIX V

Applicability of provisions of Indian Penal Code and Criminal Procedure Code

(See Regulation 35)

A. Provisions of Indian Penal Code

(i) Section 193 Punishment for false evidence:-

Whoever intentionally gives false evidence in any stage of a judicial proceeding, or fabricates false evidence for the purpose of being used in any stage of judicial proceeding, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine; And whoever intentionally gives or fabricates false evidence in any other case, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Explanation 1. A trial before a Court-martial is a judicial proceeding.

Explanation 2. An investigation directed by law preliminary to a proceeding before a Court of Justice, is a stage of a judicial proceeding, though that investigation may not take place before a Court of Justice.

(ii) Section 219- Public servant in judicial proceeding corruptly making report, etc., contrary to law:-

Whoever, being a public servant, corruptly or maliciously makes or pronounces in any stage of a judicial proceeding, any report, order, verdict, or decision which he knows to be contrary to law, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to seven years, or with fine, or with both.

(iii) Section 228(of Indian Penal Code)- Intentional insult or interruption to public servant sitting in judicial proceeding:-

Whoever intentionally offers any insult, or causes any interruption to any public servant, while such public servant is sitting in any stage of a judicial proceeding, shall be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

B. Code of Criminal Procedure

(i) Section 345- Procedure in certain cases of contempt:-

- a. When any such offence as is described in Section 175, Section 178, Section 179, Section 180 or Section 228 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860) is committed in the view or presence of any civil, criminal or revenue Court, the Court may cause the offender to be detained in custody and may, at any time before the rising of the Court on the same day, take cognizance of the offence and, after giving the offender a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why he should not be punished under this section, sentence the offender to fine not exceeding two hundred rupees, and, in default of payment of fine, to simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month, unless such fine be sooner paid.
- b. In every such case the Commission shall record the facts constituting the offence, with the statement (if any) made by the offender, as well as the finding and sentence.
- c. If the offence is under Section 228 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860), the record shall show the nature and stage of the judicial proceeding in which the Court interrupted or insulted was sitting, and the nature of the interruption or insult.

(ii) Section 346- Procedure where Court considers that case should not be dealt with under Section 345:-

If the Court in any case considers that a person accused of any of the offences referred to in Section 345 and committed in its view of presence should be imprisoned otherwise than in default of payment of fine, or that a fine exceeding two hundred rupees should be imposed upon him, or such Court is for any other reason of opinion that the case should not be disposed of under Section 345, such Court, after recording the facts constituting the offence and the statement of the accused as hereinbefore provided, may forward the case to a Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the same, and may require security to be given for the appearance of such person before such Magistrate, or if sufficient security is not given shall forward such person in custody to such Magistrate.
